12-YEAR-OLD FRIEND FINDS HIM, AS EXPECTED

Man Knew Death Was Near

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A 73-year-old Pottstown man was dying early yesterday in the mid-borough home where he lived alone. He knew it, and he knew what to do about it.

Frederick K. Rohland, 330 Rowan avenue, a widower, scrawled a pencil note for the 12-year-old boy who stopped by every morning to see how the old man was doing.

The note said simply: "Call Flehman (Kenneth M. Flehman, Pottstown funeral director). He knows."

In an upper corner of the note was "1230," written in such a way as to indicate that it referred to a time, presumably 12:30 a. m., when he thought he was dying. The note was signed "F. K. Rohland."

The "He knows" referred to the fact that, a month ago, Rohland had gone to the Fleischmann funeral home, 253 Beech street, and spent several hours making detailed prearrangements for his funeral. He listed, among other things, the type tombstone and casket he wanted.

Rohland's body was found lying on the davenport in the front room of his home at 8 o'clock by his 12-year-old friend and helper, Gordon Istenes, 243 Chestnut street.

THE 73-YEAR-OLD had suffered a heart attack several years ago and had been under a doctor's care for a heart ailment. Medicine for this condition was found near the body, as was the penciled note.

Dr. Jack R. Wannerster, Pottstown physician, pronounced him dead at 8:45 o'clock. He estimated that Rohland had been dead at least two or three hours.

The 12-year-old told Patrolman John A. Kirlin Jr., who investigated, that he had agreed with Rohland to stop by the house every morning and notice whether the left front shade was drawn or not.

If the shade was not drawn, the boy would know that the old man had got up in the morning and was all right. If it was drawn, he was to stop in the house and see what had happened.

This is what he did yesterday. The 12-year-old found his elderly friend lying face down in a pillow on the davenport, his feet hanging over the piece of furniture.

The boy ran to his nearby home, and his mother, Mrs. Albert Istenes, telephoned police.

Patrolman Kirlin learned Rohland last was seen Thursday afternoon, when the boy took to his house some heart medicine that Rohland had ordered in a prescription from Canning's Drug store, High and Washington streets.

The boy often ran such errands for Rohland. He also brought him coal in the evenings. Mrs. Istenes said Rohland and her family were good friends, and Rohland often stopped by at their home.

ROHLAND WAS born Sept. 9, 1879, and was a lifelong Pottstown resident. Husband of the late

Salvation Army Will Curtail Activities To Meet United Fund Allocation Slash

Faced with a slash of 60 percent in its allocation by the United Fund, the Salvation Army's finance committee in emergency session yesterday pulled down its sails and decided to recommend immediate curtailment of Army charity activities in the Pottstown area.

As a result of this meeting, O. C. Bearcraft, chairman of the advisory board, called a special meeting of the governing group for Tuesday to cope with the curtailment.

The axe is to be wielded because the Salvation Army was finally allotted only $9500 of the $23,000 it had requested from the Fund for 1953 operations. The Fund had failed to reach its goal of $198,800 by 28 percent.

Capt. C. Robert Flinn, officer in charge of the local citadel, said last night he had no idea what services would be eliminated until a study was made of other possible sources of revenue to make up the deficit.

"FOR INSTANCE, we may have to discontinue with providing night lodging for transients," Captain Flinn said.

At present, the Army pays for transients' lodging in local hotels. Formerly they were accommodated in borough hall, but this practice was discontinued during the past year. At present the Salvation Army is the only place in Pottstown where transients can obtain free lodging.

Yesterday's meeting was attended by Major W. A. Bamford of the Philadelphia divisional headquarters. He said he would confer with other divisional officers on the proposed curtailments and then would attend Tuesday's meeting.

"We just won't have enough money," Bearcraft pointed out; "so we've got to cut our services to fit the funds available."

Man Taken to Jail In Default of Bail On Assault Charges

A Pottstown man, charged with assault and battery by a High street woman, was held in $500 bail for court last night.

George Betz, no address listed, wearing a week-old beard and soiled plaid shirt, told Second Ward Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley he had lived in an apartment with Mrs. Grace Mondik at 265 High street for approximately three months.

He said he got drunk on two, gallons of wine on the afternoon and night of this past Jan. 16 and hit Mrs. Mondik in the face.

Kelley reprimanded Mrs. Mondik for her conduct, for permitting a man to stay in her apartment when she received public assistance.

THE SECOND WARD Justice of the Peace said the hospital bill for the injured woman totaled $76.65. He asked her who was going to pay the bill and added, "How do you meet your bills? You get $14 a week on Public Assistance because your husband left you and you pay $60 per month rent for the apartment."

Mrs. Mondik was taken to Memorial hospital this past Saturday morning with face injuries which included two black eyes.

She was retained when X-rays showed injuries to her stomach. She testified Betz struck her about the face and stomach Friday night and Saturday morning.

He admitted hitting her in the face, but added, "I never hit her in the stomach."

Kelley reprimanded the woman for permitting a man to live with her and asked Betz, "Why did you

Re-Organized Air Patrol Elects Heads Tomorrow

Pottstown's re-organized Civil Air patrol chapter will elect officers at its organization meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Pottstown Municipal airport.

This was announced yesterday by John J. Basco, airport co-manager and temporary chairman of the CAP unit. He said State CAP representatives would be present.

Thirty-five area residents already have joined and been fingerprinted and photographed, he recalled, and said membership still is open.

Motorist Sentenced For Driving During Suspension Period

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Jan. 23—Gerald Freese, Pottstown, who pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle after suspension of his license, was sentenced to serve three months in the County Prison by Judge Harold G. Knight today.

Freese, a former pantry employee of The Hill school, who has no official address, was arrested on the night of Jan. 9 by Motor Patrolman Paul I. Galloway and Patrolman William A. Mars on North Charlotte street.

Galloway said today that he recognized Freese as the driver because he had been arrested several times before. He also stated that the rear of the machine was piled high with blankets, clothing and other merchandise.

Charges of larceny of the articles from The Hill school were subsequently withdrawn.

ALFRED BONGARZONE, Boyertown RD 2, was adjudged not guilty by Judge E. Arnold Forrest following a hearing on his appeal from conviction on a violation of the State game laws.

He had been fined $10 and assessed costs amounting to $7.50 by Justice of the Peace Richard Cadmus, Pottstown, on Aug. 25 on information furnished by James A. Brown, a State game protector.

Brown testified that the defendant

Train Race Deadline Set Wednesday Noon

The deadline to turn in applications to the Recreation commission office for entry into the borough's electric train races is noon, Wednesday.

The races, which are being sponsored for the fourth year by the commission and the Kiwanis club, will be held Saturday, Jan. 31, starting at 10 a. m., at the Junior High school gymnasium. Boys and girls under 18 years of age may qualify for entry.

Contestants must supply their own engines and cars. Track and transformers will be furnished by the contest sponsors.

Borough champions will be declared in nine different classes. The champions will in turn compete with one another until all but one is eliminated. He or she will be the final winner.

Kiwanis club will present awards to winners.

Pottstown Hospital Directors Open Bids For New Building

Bids were opened last night for the building project at Pottstown hospital.

The low bid figure totaled $2,138,000. This figure included the general and all supplementary bids.

A. C. Seawell, hospital director, explained the figure represented the sum of all low bids submitted, but did not take into consideration nine possible alternates in the general bid specifications and numerous other alternates in sub bids.

Figures on bids will not be compiled for several days. The board of trustees will meet Monday night to try to establish which bidders will be awarded contracts.

SEAWELL EXPLAINED alternates were included to save time in the event the total of low bids is higher than the funds available.

"If that is the case," he said, "We will have to start taking the alternates into consideration, which might change the picture as far as awarding the general contract or any one of the sub contracts."

He said Architect Vincent Kling will study bids over the weekend.

Seawell said the $2,138,000 includes all construction costs and Group I appliances (all fixed equipment).

An additional $80,000 must be added for Group II and III. Group II is non-fixed furnishings such as beds. Group III includes supplies.

FIFTY GENERAL and sub-contractors were assembled last night in the basement of the nurse's home while Architect Kling opened bids.

He is a graduate of Williams college, Williams town, and of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

Not Too Early to Plan Gardens

For Pottstown area gardeners, Spring can't poke her nose through the ground too soon. Although Old Man Winter will not disappear from the scene for nearly two months (March 20) a check of incoming mail at Pottstown postoffice proves gardeners have piles of reading material to feast upon during the cold, damp days ahead. Carl Savage, Pottstown RD 1, carrier, sorts garden catalogs at the borough postoffice, High and Washington streets.

It's Winter Outside, But Gardeners Already Are Making Plans for Spring

"The rains and snows come and go, the winter wind howls, but Pottstown gardeners have that anticipatory glint in their eyes.

It won't be long until Spring is here. Frosty gardens soon will turn to muddy gardens and in a few weeks muddy gardens will dry and it will be planting time again.

Amateur gardeners, like amateurs in most other fields, generally spend as much time thinking about the pleasures of the soil as they spend actually working with the hoes and spades and sprayers.

Seed catalogs have been in the mail since early this month.

POTTSTOWN POSTAL employees have found many pamphlets and posters from garden and seed houses in the mails since Christmas.

Each year when the Christmas rush is over seed firms begin to mail out catalogs.

Floyd Boalton, 697 North Hanover street, whose flower garden measures 40 by 120 feet, is planning for the spade and hoe work early.

Truck Drops Carbons On Pottstown Route

Six cartons of furniture were reported lost from a truck northbound through the borough yesterday.

Daniel F. Toner, Philadelphia, reported to Desk Sgt. Irvin K. Frederick yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock that a motorist at High and Hanover streets told him the tailgate on the truck he was driving was down.

Toner said he fixed the tailgate but when he arrived in Pottsville, he discovered the cartons missing. He said the back of his truck may have been open before he reached Pottstown while driving on Route 422.

The furniture, addressed to Sears Roebuck company in Port Carbon was being transported by the Mack Transportation company, Philadelphia.

39 of 79 Booths Sold for Builders' Show, March 19-25

Pottstown Building Industries Exchange has sold 39 of 79 booths which will be available for displays at its modern home building show, March 19 to 25, at Sunnybrook ballroom.

T. K. Hauseman and Gerald Richards, co-chairmen of the booth sales committee for the event, reported yesterday at a luncheon meeting of the organization at the Dutch Grille that the sales have been made since the past Monday.

Most of the spaces sold have been taken by local firms, they reported.

The show in March will be the first of its kind sponsored by the Exchange. The group sponsoring it is composed of general contractors, sub-contractors and building suppliers.

Chairman of the committee planning the show is Edmund K. Lindemuth. Working with him in supervising the scheduling of activities are James C. Wilke and Allen K. Davidheiser.

DAVIDHEISER, RECENTLY returned from the National Home Show in Chicago, Ill. He said yesterday that he made "many contacts with national firms who have shown an interest in participating in the borough program in March."

Davidheiser said he will help in setting up the show here, using some of the ideas incorporated in the Chicago exhibit.

Although Davidheiser already has made contact with some national firms, booth space will not be offered to them until Feb. 2, after which it is expected that local companies will have used their priorities in obtaining booth space.

On exhibition at the show will be model, wooden and metal kitchens with new electrical appliances. Other innovations such as folding doors and radiant heating systems will be available for public inspection.

Arrested Good Will 'Official' Quit 9 Days Before Raid by Police

One of the three men of the Good Will Fire company who will be ordered to appear at the next session of Montgomery county court on charges of setting up and maintaining gambling devices has not been an officer of the organization since Jan. 8, nine days before the raid on the fire company's headquarters.

Paul Kilburn, 101 North York street, was listed as treasurer of the fire company when he appeared before Norristown Justice of the Peace Charles J. Gorman yesterday and waived a hearing.

He resigned as treasurer of the company Jan. 8, the night he was to be installed for his second two-year term in the office. Harry P. Bachman, South Pottstown, replaced him.

Robert Roth, Pottstown RD 1, faced the charges as financial secretary of the company although he has held that post only since Jan. 8. Prior to that he had been chairman of the board of directors for 12 years.

Roth and Leslie D. Rhoads, 986 North Hills boulevard, president of the fire company, also waived hearings. All three posted $500 bonds for their appearance at the next session of Montgomery county court.

Rhoads was named as president and steward on the warrant issued by Gorman. Roth said the president has never been a steward of the company. "A steward is a bartender," he said. "Rhoads has never been a bartender for the Good Wills."

THE THREE MEN were served warrants yesterday morning by Chief County Detective Albert M. Murphy. The warrants were issued by Gorman; the same justice of the peace who issued the search warrants for the raid the past Saturday night.

Kilburn said yesterday that he will take the stand for the Good Wills. "I'll go to jail for ten days anytime for the fire company," he said.

The three men were named to act as defendants for the fire company the past Thursday by Montgomery County District Attorney J. Stroud Weber. Weber named the three men holding the posts of defendants in other gambling

Traveling Registrars To Enrol Voters in Pottstown Vicinity

Communities in the Pottstown area will be visited by traveling registrars during February and March in preparation for the May primary elections in Montgomery county.

They will be here March 2.

The registrars will begin with a visit to Royersford Feb. 19 where they will sit at the American Legion home, according to the schedule announced yesterday by Kenneth H. Hallman, chief clerk of the County Registration commission.

Hours of registration will be from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m.

VOTERS ALSO MAY register at the commission's office in the courthouse in Norristown, beginning Feb. 17. It will be open each day from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. except Saturday, when it will be open from 8:30 a. m. until noon.

On March 26 and 27, the office will remain open until 9 p. m.

The final day to register is March 28. Those not enrolled by that time will not be allowed to vote next Spring.

Other dates and places of registration are as follows:

Feb. 24, Limerick, fire house; Feb. 25, Gilbertsville, Memorial hall; Feb. 26, East Greenville, St. John's chapel.

March 2, Pottstown, borough hall; March 3, Trappe, fire house; March 4, Schwenksville, borough hall; March 10, Green Lane, Green Lane-Marlborough school.

Elementary Pupils Go Back Full-Time

Pottstown elementary school children will return to full-session classes Monday.

School children have been enjoying half-sessions since the past Wednesday when parent-teacher conferences were started at all elementary schools.

Harvard E. Fosnocht, elementary schools principal, reported the turnout of parents for individual, 15-minute conferences was very good. "Better than 90 percent of the parents were at the schools during the conferences," he said.

The past year was the first that the schools arranged for personal meetings between parents and teachers. Fosnocht said the reaction was so favorable that the schools decided to try it again this year.

"From the response we got in the past two conferences, it looks like they will be a part of the school's schedule next year," Fosnocht said.

Paul Hafer Retains Scout Council Post

Paul R. Hafer, executive of the Boyertown Auto Body Works and a resident of 28 West Second street, Boyertown, was re-elected first vice president of the Daniel Boone council, Boy Scouts of America, at the annual meeting Thursday night in the Central YMCA, Reading.

Superintendent of Berks county schools, Newton W. Geiss, a resident of Oley, was elected to his third term as president of the council. Geiss, who has served the council in various capacities for 29 years, was elected unanimously.

Another Boyertown resident, attorney Ralph C. Body, 56 North Reading avenue, was re-named to the executive board of the council.

The organization and extension committee reported there were 37 packs in the Council as of Dec. 31, 1952; 83 troops; five explorer units; 1561 Cub Scouts; 1926 troop members and 66 explorers.

Attorney Bequeaths Estate to Two Sons Named as Executors

Thomas K. Leidy, Reading and a former local resident who was a veteran member of the Berks County Bar, left an estate valued at more than $300,000 in personal property and $78,000 in real estate. Leidy died on Jan. 15 at the age of 79 years.

The real estate consists of properties at 211 Shaner street and 19 East Fifth street, Boyertown; 1049 Penn street, 135 Reed street; 1406 North 11th street; 132 Windsor street, 132 Vine street, all in Reading; and a house in Lower Alsace Township; lots at Riverside, Reading; bungalow ground in Green- wick township, and a one-third interest in a farm at Schaefferstown, Lebanon county.

Letters were issued by Reg- ister Clair M. Price to the two sons, Thomas W. Leidy, 42 East Third street, Boyertown, and Dr. John P. Leidy, Read- ing, executors.

The decedent bequeathed shares of stock of the Second Na- tional Bank, Allentown; Werners- ville National Bank and Trust com- pany, Wernersville; Berks County Trust company, Reading; and the Farmers National Bank and Trust company, Boyertown, to his two sons equally.

The house at 132 Windsor street, Reading, and an automobile are bequeathed to the son, Dr. John Philip Leidy, Reading.

The son, Thomas Weiss Leidy, 42 East Third street, Boyertown, is bequeathed the property at 134 Reed street, Reading, and 211 Shaner street and 19 East Fifth street, Boyertown. The two sons share all the other real estate.

Artificial Light Aids Winter Gardens

Winter gardening methods have been greatly improved by research in the effectiveness of artificial light on plant growth. It is possible for any one to have flowering plants in the house, even though a sunny window is not available.

By using a photographic light meter, which nearly all amateur photographers now possess, you can check the light from your best window to see whether the daylight is adequate for the plants you wish to grow.

An intensity of 50 foot candles for twelve hours a day is sufficient to develop the flowers of bulbs, such as tulips, daffodils, Paper White narcissi, lily of the valley, and anaryllis.

To measure the light that falls on the place where your plants can be kept, lay two

Answers your questions
Q. My birds are stuff- ed up with a cold. What shall I do?
A. They need Dr. Sals- bury's Can-Pho-Sal. It loosens up clogged mucus in nose and throat. Makes it easier for birds to breathe, reduces effects of colds. Use Can-Pho-Sal -- spray or vaporize -- several times a day. In severe cases, use it as a nasal wash. Try Dr. Salsbury's Ar-Sulfa, too, for infectious coryza. Keep 'em handy -- Can-Pho-Sal and Ar-Sulfa.

Elm Leaf Beetle Invades Dwellings For Winter Sleep

Millions of unwanted "house guests" are making themselves snug in attics and basements for a stay over the Winter.

These are the obnoxious elm leaf beetle, the tree pest that annually defoliates thousands of fine elms. Fortunately, they are easier to evict than unwelcome relatives. F. R. Lancaster, entomologist and technical adviser of a tree com- pany, says these insect enemies invade homes, garages and garden tool sheds after the growing sea- son.

They gain entry through open doors, cellar windows and crevices and head promptly for a nice dry refuge. You've got to look closely, for they squeeze into crevices and in between walls. The adult insect, about one-quarter inch long, is yellowish green and has vertical brown stripes down its back. If you discover one, chances are there are hundreds of others about the premises.

Most home owners are unaware of their presence.

KOREAN WAR FARM BOOM SLOWS TO STOP

Land Prices Stay Steady For Full Month Interval

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP) — A farm land boom generated by food demands growing out of the Korean war, has apparently come to a halt.

The Agriculture department reported today that prices of farm real estate showed no significant change during the four months ending Nov. 1. This was the first four month period since the outbreak of the Korean war that land prices did not rise.

The leveling off came during a period when farm product prices were declining.

Land prices usually go up with increases in farm commodity prices and go down when the food market slumps.

THE DEPARTMENT said a severe drought over wide areas of the Southwest and Northern Great plains also contributed to the halt in advancing land prices.

The general level of land prices on Nov. 1 was 213 percent of the 1910-14 average compared with 206 percent a year earlier. The Nov. 1 level was nearly 25 percent higher than at the start of the war in Korea.

The department said its farm land reporters expect land to increase in price during the six-month period ending May 1.

"These expectations," the department said, "are in general agreement with the outlook for a slight drop in net farm income in 1953 due to slightly lower average prices and some further increase in production costs."

"SOME EASING in land prices could develop during the latter half of 1953 if farm production, costs and prices are in line with current expectations," the department said.

The farm land real estate market was unusually inactive during the Summer and Fall, the department reported. Prospective buyers apparently were hesitant to close deals until future trends became more apparent.

The department also reported that there has been no significant change in credit policies of major farm land lenders.

Poison Rats Expert Urges

To avoid feeding extra livestock around the farm, Edgar Udine, Penn State extension entomologist, urges setting warfarin stations where the rats will get something they may not be looking for.

Five stations for the average-sized farm probably will be enough to poison the rat population, he says.

County to Get 4-H Maintenance Club

Montgomery county has been chosen as one of the 15 counties to schedule the new 4-H Tractor Maintenance club which is sponsored by an oil company through the Pennsylvania State college 4-H club office.

The Montgomery county club will be conducted by the county Agricultural Extension association. John Reinford of Cedars will act as local leader.

Any boy between the ages of 15 and 21 is eligible to enroll in the club.

By co-operating with the implement dealers in the county, using their trained personnel, and shops as meeting places, a well-balanced and interesting program is being outlined. Implement dealers in the county were invited to lend their assistance.

THE LESSONS to be studied during the first year will include subjects such as tractor safety, air cleaner service, spark plug wiring and battery service, cooling system, fuel intake, carburetion, engine and general lubrication.

Cover Crops Get Conservation Funds

Nearly 48 percent of the funds used for carrying out conservation practices under the 1951 agricultural conservation program went for the establishment of protective cover and green manure crops, according to Clyde A. Zehner, chairman of the state production and marketing administration committee.

A part of this was for seed and a part for lime, phosphate and other fertilizers used in the establishment of such protective cover. Nearly 30 percent went for improvement or range and pasture land. This included seed, stock water developments, and lime and Ford's New Golden Jubilee Tractor at Landes Co.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY, manufacturer of more than 2 million farm tractors since 1917, has put into production a new, heavier, longer, much more powerful Golden Jubilee model. In 1953 Ford celebrates the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the company by Henry Ford, Sr., in 1903. The new machine is described as the most modern farm tractor ever built and is equipped with advanced type hydraulic system. Outstanding features include Hy-Trol, to increase lifting speed by a simple turn of a knob; and the entirely new overhead valve Ford "Red Tiger" engine, most powerful farm tractor engine ever produced by Ford. The new tractor is now in volume production at Ford's Highland Park, Michigan, plant. SEE IT ON DISPLAY at LANDES FARM EQUIPMENT CO. YERKES, PA. Ph. Collegeville 7997

County Farm Association Discusses Labor Shortage, Effect on Food Supply

A serious shortage of farm labor discussed. It was pointed out that farmers should send to Harrisburg for refund forms. The forms are to be filed in July. The average farmer will get a refund of $50 to $75, the membership heard.

The members pointed out in general discussion that many farm boys in the county were being drafted. This, they said, has forced farms out of business because of the shortage of labor it creates. The farmers heard that the labor shortage also shortens the food supply.

Another solution to the growing shortage is the opening of labor camp this Spring, near Reading. The members discussed a similar camp in operation in New Jersey.

The public relations problem of farmers came up on the floor at the meeting. Members were agreed that the local papers were doing an adequate job in presenting the farmer's problems to the public. They noted, however, that the big city consumer is almost unaware of the farmer's situation.

The side question of where elementary school children of Hereford township will go next year.

The school board has announced plans for an elementary level jointure with neighboring District township, Berks county, and the building of a new six-room school at a cost of approximately $175,000. Plans call for it to be built at Huff's Church, Hereford township, which is close to the geographical center of the area.

Orthaus said, "We are not opposing this part of the board's plans. In fact, we are 100 percent in favor of it."

At present, Hereford township children in the First to Eighth grades attend one-room school houses in the township. The State wants them closed.

But, he said, the group is determined to make a strong attempt to have the board decide in favor of sending Junior High school children to East Greenville.

"We want to be peaceful about it, and not make ill feeling, and to gain our point," he declared.

AS REASONS why East Greenville should be chosen, he listed:

1. Thirty-five of the township's children in the top four grades now go to the Upper Perkiomen Joint High school, and only 22 to Boyertown. Even fewer would choose Boyertown, he said, if school bus service was available in the West end of the township.
2. A secondary jointure with Boyertown would mean school buses would travel farther than they would in an Upper Perkiomen jointure.
3. His committee has checked with State officials and learned that there is no legal barrier to having the children go into Montgomery county.
4. His committee has learned that both the high school in Boyertown and the one in East Greenville are good, and it has been presented with no proof that a jointure with one would be any cheaper than a jointure with the other.

For the school board, Secretary Samuel Fox, Bally, has estimated that it might cost as much as $4000 more a year to send the High school children to East Greenville than to Boyertown.

FURTHERMORE, he said, the township board might lose more legal supervision of its boys and girls if it joined with the Montgomery county school.

Orthaus estimated that about 100 boys and girls in the top six grades will be affected by the jointure decision.

Orthaus said the petition has been circulated largely in sections that are relatively close to Boyertown, not in the town of Hereford, which is about four miles closer to East Greenville than to Boyertown.

"We thought it would be tougher there, and we wanted to try, them first," Orthaus declared. He said he was sure that when the petition was circulated intensively in the Hereford section, it would have a substantial majority of the township's 756 taxpayers.

This afternoon's meeting will be in charge of LeRoy Huber, Hereford, board president.

Weber explained, "Even though Kilburn is no longer treasurer of the organization, he was treasurer during the past two years. The section in the Pennsylvania criminal code on the gambling offense the club is accused of has a statutory limit of two years."

Pottstown Attorney Joseph L. Prince, counsel for the defense, said, "The district attorney and I had a conference scheduled the past Thursday which we didn't hold. However, the district attorney is within his rights to name the three defendants without a conference."

The Good Will officials are facing the gambling charges as the result of a raid staged the past Saturday night by Murphy on the club headquarters. In a room near the bar room, six slot machines were found.

HOSPITAL BIDS —

lenbach was judge of bidding. The new project will include an addition to the present hospital and the dismantling of the old section of the present hospital. Also an addition to the nurses' home, and addition to the school of nursing and an addition to the service building, which houses the hospital heating plant.

The low bid figure announced last night came within $100,000 of the original estimate of the architect and hospital officials.

The new five-story, steel and brick hospital building will be fireproof. Seawell said "the old structure is not fireproof and is not adequate in a number of other categories."

THE STATE will have ten days to confirm the combination of bids assembled by the trustees.

In the fund-raising campaign initiated in the Fall of 1950, $1,118,000 was contributed or pledged.

The new project is being constructed under the Hill-Burton act, a Federal law. It provides the Federal government will contribute 40 cents for each 60 cents collected locally.

Edward L. Gruber, treasurer of the board of trustees and chairman of the building committee, presided over last night's session.

YOUR GEM STORY FOR TODAY

A Diamond Is Forever

From man to woman, from heart to heart, a Diamond speaks in tender terms of love and happiness. Whether it marks the joy of the engagement or the success of later years, it is the gift each woman cherishes, and wears with special pride.

There are many occasions on which you may want to give a Diamond... on the arrival of your children... on anniversaries... and moments you wish to be remembered. And each Diamond you give her will shine with special meaning, brightly symbolizing your love and devotion.

Such an important gift as a diamond, of course, should be chosen with special care. We keep this in mind when we select the diamonds that go into our collections... making sure that each exquisite gem we have to show you, no matter how small or large, is one of complete flawlessness. The principal tool we use is the Diamondscope. It's a machine which anyone can use and examine, with extreme magnification. You are welcome to stop in and use ours and you are under absolutely no obligation. Naturally all gems in our collection are examined with this microscope and you may use it, too, so that there can be no doubt in your mind. We can also explain to you how color, cutting and clarity, as well as carat weight, contribute to a diamond's beauty and value.

See you next Saturday.

WILSON GETS APPROVAL OF SENATE GROUP

Armed Service Committee Gives Unanimous Vote to Okay

CONFIRMATION EXPECTED SOME TIME NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Senate Armed Services committee today voted unanimously to approve the nomination of Charles E. Wilson, multi-millionaire former president of General Motors, as Secretary of Defense.

The nomination now goes to the Senate where confirmation is expected early next week.

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), majority leader, said he will try for final Senate action on Monday.

The Senate committee voted approval after hearing Wilson promise:

1. HE WILL check with President Eisenhower on any problems that might involve a "misunderstanding" in his handling of multi-billion-dollar defense contracts, especially with General Motors.

2. He will dispose of all his GM stock, valued at more than 2 1/2 million dollars, by April 1.

3. He will also dispose of 1800 shares of GM stock, worth around $122,000, which he is scheduled to receive as a bonus from his old firm over the next three years.

SIMULTANEOUSLY, it was disclosed that Wilson told the Senate committee the past week his wife would probably agree to dispose of her considerable holdings if necessary.

Wilson's pledge to get rid of his GM stock reversed his previous stand. Testifying before the Senate group the past Thursday, the Detroit industrialist said it would involve too great a "sacrifice" in taxes if he liquidated his financial interests.

At that time, it was estimated he would stand to lose approximately $600,000. Tax experts later said the figure was too high, although his losses would be substantial.

Wilson's nomination had been sharply challenged on the ground that Federal law forbids any Government official from transacting business with a firm in which he has a financial stake. General Motors is the nation's biggest private defense contractor.

AMONG OTHERS, Senator Morse (Ind-Ore) objected that it was "not in the interests of good government" to have a former GM president judging the details of Government contracts with his old company. Morse said GM has close to five billion dollars in defense contracts.

Committee members questioned Wilson for three hours behind closed doors today, then went to lunch and discussed the question further among themselves before finally voting to approve Wilson's nomination.

Governor Fine Orders State Officials To Punish Ringleaders of Prison Riot

BELLEFONTAINE, Jan. 23 (AP)—State officials were given orders today by Gov. John S. Fine to "punish the culprits" in the three-day riot at the Rockview State penitentiary.

Some 325 rebel convicts—a stubborn core of the 800 who participated in the Monday night outbreak—surrendered unconditionally last night at the Central Pennsylvania prison. They released the six guards who had been held captive.

"Of course, we're going to punish the culprits," Fine told a newsman by telephone from Harrisburg. "This investigation is intended to prosecute the ringleaders."

Meanwhile, William C. Brown, state welfare secretary, started a search among all the prisoners who had participated in the riot in quest of hidden weapons and other contraband.

BROWN SAID the damage ran into "thousands of dollars" but was unable to estimate it pending

Pottstown's Prides

Another in the series of beautiful homes that make Pottstown warm

Big rooms and plenty of storage space are features of this home of Mr. and Mrs. John Copenhaver at 626 Spruce street (near East street). They moved into it in May, 1951. Since they needed only one second floor bedroom, they made it a big one, 16 by 27 feet, with twin windows at each end, and two storage areas and a big cedar closet. The doors throughout the house are similar to the front door in that they are unpaneled and of natural finish. Downstairs is the living room, 16 by 11 1/2 feet, a vestibule, big closet, a kitchen with a bay-windowed dining area and laundry area and two bedrooms and bath. The kitchen has hardwood floors. In the full basement is a wash room and a partly-finished recreation room. There's a two-car garage behind the house. Copenhaver, a Pottstown contractor, built the house himself.

No Parking Ticket But Life Sentence

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—"Getting married, please give us 20 minutes."

Patrolman Frank C. Baker Jr., read this note on a windshield today as he was tagging automobiles parked illegally near the municipal building.

Out of the building came David Jackier and his new bride, the former Gloria Olson, 24, a model.

Baker waved them on—without a ticket.

"He's getting a life sentence," Baker commented. "What would 20 minutes mean? He has a lifetime to think this one over."

Mohammed Naguib Launches Drive Against 'Imperialism' in Nile Valley

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 23 (AP)—Egypt's military premier, Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, launched his own Liberation society movement today to drive what he called British imperialism out of the Nile valley.

He led thousands of massed Egyptians in a Liberation society oath asking God's mercy for those "who prefer death in their struggle for liberty rather than mean-

Dulles Considers Kennan Clash Closed Sabres Get 4 MIGs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today wrote off as a "closed episode" a recent apparent clash between his views and those of Ambassador George Kennan on liberation of Soviet satellites.

Dulles had a face-to-face meeting this afternoon with Kennan, who holds the title of Ambassador to Russia though the Soviets have barred him.

Afterward Michael McDermott, State department press officer, told reporters: "Mr. Dulles wishes it to be known he considers the matter closed."

McDermott said the episode would not have any effect on Kennan's next assignment. It was not believed, however, that Kennan's stock stands very high in the new administration.

THE APPARENT clash of views developed this way: Dulles had told the Senate Foreign Relations committee Thursday of the past week that the United States should develop a policy for the "liberation" of Soviet satellite nations through the use of moral and propaganda pressures.

Kennan in a speech Friday night had argued against what he called action at the Government level to change the Government in any other country.

Afterward Kennan sent word to Dulles that this was not designed as a criticism of his Foreign Relations committee statement.

McDermott said today that the Kennan speech "was prepared by Ambassador Kennan, cleared in the normal fashion in the Department of State and distributed to the press before Mr. Dulles' appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations committee and had no relation to Mr. Dulles' remarks."

US Moves to Deport Serge Rubenstein

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Serge Rubenstein, Russian-born financier, today was denied a Federal court preliminary injunction that would prohibit the Government from deporting him.

Attorney General Brownell immediately ordered the immigration and naturalization service to pick up Rubenstein on a deportation warrant.

Brownell's predecessor, James P. McGranery, had ordered that the 45-year-old Rubenstein be shipped out because he dodged the draft in World War II.

Rubenstein's attorneys in asking for a preliminary injunction to block the deportation had told US District Judge F. Dickinson Ambassador to London, left for home today aboard the liner United States.

ALTHOUGH it was announced the movement will not be a political party, its principles include many political objectives, the announcement said. Its military members would either withdraw from the society or resign from the military service.

Naguib was interrupted many times by organized shouts of "no imperialism after today."

GIFFORD LEAVES SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Jan. 23 (AP)—Walter S. Gifford, retiring US Ambassador to London, left for home today aboard the liner United States.

GENERAL TAYLOR TO HEAD EIGHTH ARMY IN KOREA

To Confer With President Before Leaving for Far East

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, a soldier who knows the Far East as well as the battlefields of Europe, was chosen today as commander of the Eighth Army in Korea.

As head of this Army, which includes all United Nations ground forces in Korea, Taylor will be a key man in any new strategy the Eisenhower Administration may develop for hastening an end of the Korean stalemate.

Taylor, whose appointment to succeed the retiring 60-year-old Gen. James A. Van Fleet was announced today, is scheduled to confer with Eisenhower at the White House tomorrow noon before leaving for Japan.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said the President regretted that the "passing of time, and time alone" has resulted in the loss of Van Fleet's services in Korea. Eisenhower said Van Fleet, a West Point classmate, was probably the best qualified combat officer in the armed forces.

The veteran Van Fleet is returning home nearly two years after the assumed command of United Nations ground forces in the dramatic shift which attended the recall of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander in the Far East. MacArthur was replaced by Gen. Matthew Ridgway, now commander of North Atlantic Treaty forces in Europe.

Eisler's Office Shows Purge Effects

By TOM REEDY

BERLIN, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Communist broom which swept Gerhart Eisler out of high position has left his old propaganda headquarters looking like an almost empty tomb.

A brief look through the four-story building in the Soviet sector today showed less than 200 employees where 1200 once scurried about. Communist police discouraged dallying, but it was evident the purge shaking the entire Soviet sphere has taken a terrific toll in Eisler's agency, abolished Jan. 1 and replaced by a simple "press office."

Workmen have removed the imposing name plates which only three weeks ago denoted the cubbyholes where Eisler and his staff concocted a "hate America" diet for East Germany's 18 million people.

THE JUNK HEAP inherited the name plates of Eisler, deputy Albert Norden, Kurt Olivier, Gerhard Schulze, Richard Senkbusch and a dozen other branch chiefs.

The only plate of any moment left is that of Kurt Blecha, a long-term Communist who now is boss of the Government's press office. Blecha's bureau is packed into a half dozen little offices. The National Front, a propaganda group supposed to represent all parties and collaborating agencies of the Red regime, has spread into some of Eisler's old quarters. Half the building is empty.

It's useless to ask what happened to the thousand employees who were thrown out.

Privacy Surrounds Cabinet Meeting, Eisenhower to Confer With Leaders

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—President Eisenhower presided over his first official Cabinet meeting today and set 8:30 a. m. (Pottstown time) Monday as the hour for his first formal conference with Republican leaders of the Senate and House.

The Monday morning session, the White House said, is expected to consider the time and content of the State of the Union message the new chief executive plans to deliver to Congress in person.

Morse Blocks Quick Senate Confirmation Of Harold Stassen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) invoked the Senate unanimous consent rule again today, this time to block quick confirmation of Harold E. Stassen as mutual security administrator.

Morse, who similarly upset President Eisenhower's plans to have his Cabinet sworn in on inauguration day Tuesday, did not object, however, to the immediate confirmation of former Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge to be US ambassador to the United Nations.

Morse observed that all Senate members were "fully familiar" with Lodge's background. The new UN ambassador formerly was a Republican Senator from Massachusetts.

Lodge was quickly confirmed. Shortly afterward, he went to the White House and took his oath of office, with Eisenhower looking on. Lodge was one of the leaders of the Eisenhower-for-President campaign and served as pre-convention campaign manager.

THE LODGE and Stassen nominations were both sent to the Senate by the Foreign Relations committee with unanimous recommendations that they be approved.

An air of complete privacy surrounded the two hour and ten minute Cabinet session and reporters were left without any words as to what matters of foreign or home front policy may have been discussed.

The Presidential press secretary, James C. Hagerty, made it clear that secrecy will be the rule for Cabinet sessions. Hagerty was asked this question after newsmen had failed to elicit any information from departing cabinet members:

"IS ANY CABINET member free to discuss what went on in a Cabinet meeting if he so desires?"

The press secretary replied in the negative and then said he wanted to put it this way:

"This Administration believes that private meetings with the President of the United States should be kept private. A cabinet meeting is private."

Members of the Roosevelt and Truman cabinets, while refraining from going into details of cabinet meetings, frequently were willing to tell reporters in a general way what subjects were discussed, particularly in their own specialized fields.

40 Attend Services For Brodie Twin

CARTHAGE, Ill., Jan. 23 (AP)—A little boy who never had a chance was buried today in a snow-mantled country cemetery.

About 40 relatives attended services for 16-months-old Roger Lee Brodie.

After sitting through a 25-minute service in the Methodist church of nearby Burnside, they followed the tiny gray casket through the soggy snow of Moss Ridge graveyard, near Carthage, to the Brodie burial plot.

Only two pall bearers were needed—Sterling Risby and Waldo Turner, close friends of the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brodie of Moline.

Roger Lee, one of the head-jointed siamese twins who were separated by surgeons Dec. 17 at Illinois Research hospital, Chicago, died Tuesday. He was larger than his twin, Rodney Dee, at birth, but he was the less hardy of the two.

TRUSS EXPERTS. COMING TO POTTSTOWN

The Rice Rupture Service

Experts, personal representatives of William S. Rice, Inc.,

Adams, N. Y., will be at the

Shuler House, Pottstown, Pa.,

Monday, January 26. Every ruptured person should take advantage of this great opportunity.

The Rice Method for Reducible Rupture Control is known the world over. You can now see this Method demonstrated and have a Rice Appliance fitted to you. Absolutely no charge unless you are satisfied to keep the Outfit after having the Appliance adjusted and you see how perfectly and comfortably it holds.

No harsh, deep-pressing springs; nothing to gouge the flesh and make you sore.

Wear this Appliance for a full thirty day trial and if you are not perfectly satisfied at the end of that time, return it.

Thousands have reported entire satisfaction through using the Rice Appliance. Why suffer the burden of reducible rupture worry if there is a chance to be free from it? Anyway, it will cost you nothing to come in and learn all about the Rice Method and the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Just ask at hotel desk for the Rice Representatives and they will do the rest.

Hours are 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m. or 7 to 9 evening.

Don't miss this great opportunity to see these Experts.

OBITUARIES

ROGER WILLIAM RIIS, a graduate of The Hill school and an associate editor of Reader's Digest, died in Stamford hospital, STAMFORD, CONN., yesterday, after suffering a heart attack on the hospital grounds. He was 58.

Mr. Riis had gone to the hospital for his wife, Elizabeth (Hipple) Riis, who was due to return home yesterday after having undergone a minor operation.

In addition to graduating from The Hill school, he also was graduated from Williams college. He was a senior partner of Riis and Bonner, a New York public relations firm, from 1921 to 1935.

Mr. Riis was a member of the Urban League of New York and a director of the American Civil Liberties union.

He was the only surviving son of the late Jacob Riis, New York philanthropist, and was secretary and a director of Riis House settlement.

Besides his widow, he is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. Jacob Riis. Services will be held at the Wilton Congregational church, Stamford, Conn., Monday afternoon.

EDWARD T. JOHNSTON, former Douglassville resident who was living in READING, died yesterday morning at Community General hospital, Reading. He was 66.

Born in Morgantown, he was the son of the late Samuel and Mary (Fisher) Johnston. His wife, the former Anna Wynn, died 37 years ago.

Mrs. Johnston was a member of the Methodist denomination.

Surviving him are one son, Ralph C. Johnston, Reading; a granddaughter; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Kercher, Reading, Mrs. Cora Williams, West Lawn, and Mrs. Ida Fredericks, Berkshire Heights; three brothers, Albert Johnston, Reading, Dr. Walter Johnston, Wyomissing, and Wilmer Johnston, Reading.

Services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 433 East First street, Birdsboro.

The Rev. Elmer N. Young, pastor of Kutztown Union Sunday school, will officiate. Interment will be in Caernarvon cemetery, Morgantown.

ELIZABETH MEYERS, 84, LINFIELD, a native of Trappe, died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in Memorial hospital where she was admitted the past Nov. 10. She had been in failing health for the past two years.

Miss Meyers was a daughter of Bartlett and Hannah (Knoll) Meyers. She lived in Trappe until she was 18 years old, and subsequently lived in Cleveland, Ohio, and then Philadelphia.

Two years ago, she moved to the Linfield home of a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Brownback.

She was a member of the Christian Science church in Philadelphia.

Surviving are two sisters, Hannah, widow of Louis Hutt, Linfield, and Lena, wife of Mervin Brownback, with whom Miss Meyers lived, and a brother, William B. Meyers, Cleveland.

Services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home in Parkerford. Interment will be made in Augustus Lutheran cemetery, Trappe.

Services for LOUISA S. (ROCHAT) BAKER, wife of Daniel H. Baker, POTTSTOWN RD 3, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 404 High street.

The Rev. Arthur S. Hanson, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, Stowe, officiated.

Interment was made in the Pottstown West End cemetery.

Bearers were Gerald Hershey, Joseph Zaleski, Clifford Bicer, George Decker, Bruce Decker and Richard Decker.

Services for WILLIAM K. SCHAEFFER, POTTSTOWN RD 4, will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 404 High street.

The Rev. Edgar M. Cooper, pastor of New Hanover Lutheran church, will officiate, and interment will be made in New Hanover Lutheran cemetery.

Know Your Mercury Carrier

Donald Neff, son of Mrs. Esther McElroy, 108 River road, South Pottstown, is practicing for his life's work by keeping records of the copies of The Mercury he serves in Warwick settlement, South Pottstown.

Donald has set his sights on becoming a bookkeeper. To supply himself with the formal education necessary to follow the profession, he is studying business subjects in the Sophomore class at North Coventry High school.

But the young carrier enjoys physical activity just as much as the tedious work of a bookkeeper. Although he gets plenty of exercise serving papers on his early morning run which gets him out of bed at 5 a. m., he is an active member of the Jayvees baseball team. He will play his second season this Summer.

During the Winter when base all equipment is locked away, Donald keeps fit by exercising at the Pottstown YMCA.

HE IS AN active member of the Luther league of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown, town.

An expert trumpet player, Donald idolizes the music of Harry James. Almost every record made by the famous bandleader is in Donald's collection.

Donald has a brother, Wilbur Neff, 21, an employee at Dyer's Quarry, and a sister, Shirley Neff, 11, a pupil at North Coventry school.

Driver Fined $150 After Pleading Guilty

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Jan. 23 — After informing the court that his insurance company was helping to pay for damages he caused at a Graterford service station on Dec. 18, Harold Myers, 31, Minersville, a guard at the Eastern State penitentiary, was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 and the costs by Judge William F. Dannehower today.

Myers had pleaded guilty on Jan. 2 to a drunken driving charge which arose after his car knocked down two gas pumps, a kerosene pump and caused other damage estimated at about $2000 to the service station property.

At that time Judge Dannehower deferred sentence to give Myers an opportunity to see what arrangements could be worked out toward making some restitution toward the damages.

The Romans used glass for windows, but there is much debate about how extensively it was used.

Air Force Reserve Designated 'Flight A' At Squadron Meeting

Pottstown's Air Force reserve unit has been designated "Flight A" in a reorganization of the squadron this week, Lt. Paul Chryst, flight adjutant, announced last night.

Lt. Chryst, Lt. Clarence H. Renoll and Major Elmer S. Friedberg, commander of the local unit, met with other officers of the squadron at Bungalow Inn, Jeffersonville, to complete the reorganization.

The other three flights in the newly-created 9014 Volunteer Reserve Training squadron are those from West Chester, Bryn Mawr, and Norristown. All sent representatives to the meeting.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Col. Charles Skeele, Harrisburg, commanding officer of the First Air Reserve district and president of the National Reserve Officers association.

Colonel Skeele gave an orientation talk before the 35 officers attending, after which future aims and missions were discussed.

Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.—1 Corinthians 10:12.

In God We Trust

...do we or don't we?
Does it mean anything, or doesn't it?
Would another phrase do just as well?
Our nation's founders didn't think so!
The men who signed the Constitution, the men and women who braved the prairie and the mountain to pioneer our land, they didn't think so!
But what about us?
Does this motto on the coin in our pocket guide us, inspire us, strengthen us? Or have we forgotten the power of the faith expressed in these words?
If our country's future is uncertain, if we are worried about tomorrow, then perhaps the time has come to put aside small things and turn once more to the faiths that made our country great.
Our country's great leaders down through the years shared a sure belief in God, in themselves, in their fellowmen, and in freedom!
In crisis and in peace they placed their faith in God's wisdom, in their own ability to work out their own problems, and in the great justice of a free people.
Let us do the same today, for these faiths will renew our strength. Go to church tomorrow!

Shall Living Climb?

If the American standard of living is to resume the steady climb that was interrupted by depression and war, our resources —from which income is created—must be increased tremendously, an editorial appearing in all McGraw-Hill publications says.
During the past four years it has taken about $3.60 of national wealth to yield $1 of income after taxes.
If, by 1950, the income of the average American is to be increased from about $1490, where it stands at present, to $2000, $310 billion must be added to the national wealth.
This is nearly three times as much as has been added to the nation's wealth since the end of World War II.
Because we have made large additions to our productive equipment in recent years, fears are frequently expressed that we soon shall be plagued by an excess of such equipment.
But the facts about our national wealth—factories, farms, mines, and equipment of all kinds—do not support this conclusion.
Since 1929 our national wealth has not been increasing as steadily as it did during earlier periods. In 1945 total US national wealth was actually less than it was in 1929 and only in the last six years have any consistent additions been made.
When we divide the nation's wealth by the population, we find ourselves slightly worse off per person today than we were in 1929, in spite of the large additions to national wealth since 1945. Depression and war were the two principal reasons for lack of progress.
Failure to raise our wealth per person means we have fewer resources with which to create income for each individual and that we have made no progress in the crucial task of assuring future increases in prosperity.
To sustain prosperity over the long pull a nation must see that its wealth is not dissipated, for what is happening to our wealth now is a harbinger of what is going to happen to our prosperity later on.

Bennett Raps Farm Controls

FARMERS should "move out from the controlling shadow of government," according to S. Wallace F. Bennett of Utah.
"American agriculture has come of age," he emphasized. "It is prepared to enter into full partnership in our free economy; no longer content with parity but determined upon independent progress."
Parity, Mr. Bennett explained, "is an admission that you never want to lead—only to catch up."

Nazis Again

APPARENTLY old Nazis never quit trying. The British have pinched seven of them in their West German security zone and charged them with plotting to seize power in West Germany.
The principal danger that such plotters represent is their tendency to play footie with the Reds in East Germany. As Nazis, they are kidding themselves. Joe Stalin's boys make Hitler's lads, at best, look like amateurs. What this kind of Nazi plot would achieve, if successful, would be to open the door to the Red wolf and get little Nazis eaten up, along with the rest of the West German family.

READERS SAY:

Clubs Asked to Help Against Smut

Let's Have the Truth —
To the Editor: I hope the Mercantile bureau goes through with a proposal by Chairman C. J. Keiser to curb the sale of smutty literature in the borough.
Other civic clubs and organizations should get on the bandwagon and endorse the program called for by the Rev. Floyd in council a few days ago.
Why don't the Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and other organizations do their part in this campaign?
Why don't the borough Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts pledge support of these programs and recommend that all boys and girls refrain from patronizing news-stands which handle degrading literature.
This should be a community-wide campaign to rid the borough of cheap, vulgar propaganda about gansterism and sex.
I say, let's make Pottstown a model community. While we're at it how about cleaning out our schools too. I don't believe all the talk about what goes on in the school is rumor. There must be a basis for some of it.

There's nothing more powerful than an aroused public. Pottstown is aroused now, and let's keep everybody aroused until the town is cleaned.
Let's rid the borough for good of the sources of juvenile crime and de-liquency and let's dig to the bottom of the rumors which have reached so few ears in the borough.
Our teachers have an obligation to the community. Certainly, behind every juvenile crime stands a guilty adult.
The truth might be ugly if totally revealed. But it will get a lot uglier if allowed to remain unrevealed for another few years.
North End
FORMER SCHOOL TEACHER

He'll Take Care of Smut
To the Editor: I read in The Mercury (Readers Say) the other day about those people who don't want censorship of smut in Pottstown.
Now I haven't had much learning,
and I never heard of these guys Chaucer, Shelley, Byron and Keats, but I'd like to give my opinion in the matter anyway.
We get most of the big-name magazines at home which I read and find most enjoyable. I've been reading them a long time, and if this censorship does come about, I don't want any nosey guys coming around and telling me I can't read them anymore.
I may be dumb and not know what makes the best reading, but I certainly know what smut is without anyone telling me. So long as I know what it is, my kids won't ever read it either.

WORRIED

WASHINGTON
McCarthy to Continue
Role of Red Prosecutor

By RAY TUCKER
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23—Sen. "Joe" McCarthy would probably have lost out in the rivalry to become Capitol Hill's chief Communist prosecutor, if it were not for that other "Joe" in the Kremlin.
Thanks to Stalin, the Wisconsin man will continue to be the principal scourge of Reds in the US Government, the United Nations and in the educational system.
This will be the second time that the Russian dictator has rescued and rehabilitated the Senator, whom so many politicians fear but do not dare to antagonize, including top members of the Administration. And the canny McCarthy, who can scent opportunity before his colleagues have opened the morning newspaper, is fully aware of his new status.

CHARGES CONFIRMED: Stalin gave McCarthy his first lift when the Soviet leader inspired the Red attack on South Korea in June of 1950. Before that fateful day, the Senator's critics at Washington, including Harry S. Truman and Dean Acheson, almost had him down for the count. Numerous GOP-ers seeking election or re-election that November begged him to stay away from their political door.
But the Red aggression, especially when it was reinforced by Chinese Communists, forced Congress and the public to take another look at the noisy, unorthodox Saxonarola of the Senate. McCarran Committee and Grand Jury revelations of pro-Soviet sympathizers in the State Department and the UN appeared to confirm many of his most sensational charges, as did the atomic spy ring disclosures.

IN ADDITION to this latest Russian reinforcement, McCarthy has out-smarted rival Red hunters—Senators Jenner of Indiana and Ferguson of Michigan—in more practical ways. Not even the strengthened House Committee on Un-American Activities can challenge him.

As the chief investigator for his forthcoming inquiry, he has named Roy L. Cohn of New York City. It was Cohn who, as an Assistant United States District Attorney, defied both the UN's Trygve Lie and former Secretary Acheson by revealing that numerous American fellow-travelers had crept onto the international organization's pay roll.
Discharges and resignations galore followed this exposure.

Cohn is regarded as a legal prodigy.
He was graduated from law school so young—18—that he had to wait three years before he could be admitted to the bar. He is now only 26. His father is a prominent New York judge, and young Cohn is one of the proteges of Bernard M.
Baruch. The veteran financier is understood to be sympathetic to Mc-Carthy's past and prospective performances.

DISAGREES WITH EISENHOWER.
TAFT: McCarthy's consciousness of his new allies poses a problem for President Eisenhower. The latter is understood to believe that future checks on the loyalty of US and UN officials should be made by the appropriate government departments—State, Justice, the Civil Service commission.

As a loyal Administration man, the Wisconsin Senator might be expected to abide by this decision. But his selection of Cohn and other agents for his staff indicates that he plans even more sensational maneuvers. Moreover, he disagrees with the Eisenhower-Taft viewpoint that the colleges themselves can be entrusted with the task of policing the campuses and classrooms against Communist infiltration. Finally, he craves headlines.

The Worry Clinic
By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HARRY H., aged 34, is an improvident husband who squanders his good salary on non-essentials, such as guns and fishing tackle, while his wife and children are poorly clothed and harassed by bill collectors.

His wife came to me several weeks ago for advice, saying she felt she couldn't continue living with him any longer. She wanted to get a job and rear her children under better home conditions. She wanted a divorce.

But I suggested that she make another attempt to restore harmony at home. So I really saved Harry from losing his wife!

Actually, however, I didn't think she had a very good chance of changing him for Harry had been unduly spoiled in his childhood.

It takes two good women to make a good husband, and the first must be his mother.

If she permits her son to grow up as a temper tantrum, selfish male, then an angel from heaven might be unable to convert him into a desirable husband.

SO I gave Harry's wife my "Tests for Husbands," which was developed after personal interviews with 600 modern wives who seemed happily married.

Thousands of you readers have this constructive rating scale in your files.
It contains the 30 most commonly cited virtues of the modern husband, plus his 50 most commonly cited vices or faults.

But when his wife asked Harry to rate himself on this chart, he refused to look at it, and swore at me.

However, his youngsters innocently stumbled upon the test and eagerly began applying it to their father.

But when they totaled his score, he rated "Very Poor," which is the lowest category of the five possible rankings on this test.

SO HARRY angrily slapped their faces and fore up the test, meanwhile profanely telling what he thought of me and all other psychologists.

Harry refuses to acknowledge his failure as a husband but indulges in America's favorite indoor sport, namely,
"Buck passing." We call this phenomenon "projection," in technical psychological terms.

Even in early childhood a youngster who bumps his shin against a chair will thus blame the chair.

For we all try to get out from under the humiliation of being a failure! So we project our ire on our wives or the boss or the "economic royalists," or somebody else.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
AT ONE time it was believed that cirrhosis, or hardening of the liver, was due to drinking excess alcohol over a long period of time. It is now thought that alcohol is not the real cause of the disease, but contributes indirectly to it.

A dietary deficiency may be the real cause in a majority of cases. Thus, the alcoholic may get cirrhosis of the liver only as a secondary cause, because he does not eat enough food while drinking.

Many people get cirrhosis following a liver infection, or hepatitis. Infection by certain parasites such as liver flukes, which are prevalent in countries like Egypt, may sometimes be a cause.

A dietary deficiency, it is believed,
leads to a growth of fat in the liver, which eventually causes the organ to become hard and fibrous, destroying the normal liver cells.

When this happens, and the normal tissues are replaced by scar tissues, the flow of blood through the liver may be highly distributed. This can cause a back pressure in the different blood vessels leading into the liver.

In the vessels leading from the lower intestine, this can lead to hemorrhoids, or piles, which are very common in persons suffering from cirrhosis of the liver.

The blood vessels leading to the liver from the upper portion of the stomach and from the esophagus also become entangled and bleed easily. A person with this condition may then vomit blood. One suffering from cirrhosis of the liver can vomit up a great deal of blood and may easily die from hemorrhage.

The abdomen in cirrhosis of the liver becomes swollen from excess fluid, and the legs may also swell. The person is anemic and has a yellowish tint to his skin, or jaundice.

Jesus Teaches Need for Humility and Forgiveness

Children Possess Heaven-Desired Humbleness, He Tells His Disciples
The Golden Text

Jesus and the child.

"Verily I say unto you, except ye turn and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven."—Matthew 18:3.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THIS LESSON on the need for humility and a forgiving spirit is indeed a timely one. In the last 10 years we have seen men rise from obscurity to great power. It is possible that they were humble men in the beginning, but with great ambitions.

When they gained power they exercised it as if they were omnipotent—even as God. They presumed to exercise the power of life and death over their fellow creatures, persecuting and slaughtering innocent millions. They brought on a great war in which millions more were killed—civilians as well as soldiers, and many more were injured or made homeless.

What a difference it would have made if they had followed Jesus' teaching, and used the power they gained for good instead of evil!

Even the disciples, those closest to our Lord, craved to be greater than their fellows, and asked Jesus, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

Christ's rebuke was to set a little child in their midst, saying, "Whoever shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

Watch children at play, they quarrel, strike each other; but a short time later, they are again playing happily together, their squabbles forgiven and forgotten. It is often the parents taking their own children's part, who continue the warfare and sometimes force their children to do the same.

Jesus taught, "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you."

How can we expect forgiveness if we do not acknowledge that we too have sinned, and forgive others, humbly asking our heavenly Father to forgive us?

Further Jesus said, that "Whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea." Children were beloved by our Master.

Jesus further illustrated His lesson by telling a parable of a man who had 100 sheep, but one went astray and was lost. Would not the man leave the 99 sheep and diligently seek the strayed one until he found him? Then would he not rejoice more over that one that might have been lost forever, than over the 99 who had not strayed?

So much for the "humble and contrite heart."

Now about forgiving: It is sad but true that some of our bitterest quarrels and least forgiving spirits often are those in church groups. We all profess to follow the same Lord and acknowledge the same God, our Father. Let us all reread Christ's teaching on forgiveness. He said that if your brother trespassed against you, you should go to him and talk the matter over. If you could make the other see where his fault lay, you have "gained thy brother."

If the offender could not be brought to see his fault, then witnesses should be called to hear the dispute. If that did no good, the matter should be brought to the church. Christ only mentioned His church twice during His ministry. If the trespasser refused to listen to the church, the case was hopeless.

Peter asked Jesus how many times should he forgive his brother, "Until seven times?" Jesus answered, "Until seventy times seven."

Jesus then told another parable about a man whose servant owed him an enormous sum of money—more than he could ever pay. The master told him to sell himself, his wife and children, and all that he had, and pay him.

The servant fell on his knees and begged so hard that the master was overcome with pity and forgave the servant his debt.

So what did this man do? Devote himself to his master's service always, and show the compassion that had been given him to others? No, he went out, found a man who owed him quite a paltry sum, and demanded payment. When the man begged for time to make the payment, the wicked servant threw him into prison.

When fellow servants told the master what the man had done, he was justly angry, and calling the man to him, he called him wicked and delivered him to the tormentors until he should pay his great debt.

"So likewise shall My heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses."

Our note book editor tells of a young minister who was rude and bombastic to a noted preacher. Later he realized his fault and wrote to the minister asking forgiveness. The answer was short and beautiful: "Forgiven; Forgotten; Forever!"

Jesus Teaches Humility, Forgiveness ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven? Jesus said: "Whoever humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

If a man had 100 sheep and lost one, would he not seek until he found it? and would he not rejoice greatly over the lost one?

"If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother."

"How oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Until seventy times seven."

But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor?—(St. Luke X, 29.)

The good Samaritan had compassion on the man beaten by thieves after two others passed him by and he, said Jesus, was the neighbor; and He commanded, Go, and do thou likewise.

How many times each day do we "pass by on the other side" of those about us who would be comforted by just a smile or a pleasant word from our lips! How can we who profess to love the Saviour neglect to show compassion and mercy ourselves?

Churchill Leaves US To Sail for Home

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill sailed for home today after a West Indies vacation that featured "a little rest—a little change."

Looking fit, Churchill boarded the Cunard liner Queen Mary with his wife, their daughter, Mrs. Christopher Soames, and their son-in-law, Capt. Soames. The ship sailed for England shortly after noon.

"We had a very good journey and passed a pleasant fortnight in the sunshine," Churchill said of his two weeks vacation in Jamaica.

He all but finished three paintings during his holiday—two landscapes and a seascape.

Before going to the Indies, Churchill conferred with the incoming President Eisenhower and the outgoing President Truman.

Engaged!

The whole world loves them—because they love each other. Their happiness is contagious; everyone rejoices with them.

But, as the world gets used to their being engaged, folks will begin to take them for granted. Their months of planning and preparation will pass unnoticed until the invitations go out.

Quietly, the bride-and-groom-to-be, will be searching for a home, buying furniture, planning their wedding and honeymoon, making scores of important decisions together.

One of those decisions is likely to concern the Church they will attend. More and more today, young couples recognize the importance of building religious convictions into their marriage.

The adjustments which their new life will demand, and the problems they expect to face together point the value of a mutual faith in God, and a common devotion to Christian ideals.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) children's sake, (2) for his of his community and nation, (3) for the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Pastor of Transfiguration Will Be Installed Tomorrow

Rev. E. B. Umberger To Be Seated by Conference Leader

The new pastor of Transfiguration Lutheran church, Hanover and Chestnut streets, will be installed at the service tomorrow morning.

In a formal ceremony, the Rev. Eugene B. Umberger will be sworn into the duties of the church. The Rev. E. L. Angstadt, Summerville, president of the Pennsylvania conference of the Pennsylvania ministerium, United Lutheran church in America, will be the installing officer. Liturgist at the service will be the Rev. Dr. Gustave W. Weber, a member of Transfiguration church and former supply pastor there.

The Rev. Robert E. Olson, pastor of First Lutheran church, Leeburg, will preach the morning sermon. His topic will be "Pastor and People."

All four of the pastors taking part in the service are graduates of the Mt. Airy Theological seminary, where they were students together.

MRS. HAROLD B. KEIM, organist and choir director, will lead the church choir in the anthem "Praise the Lord" during the service.

Tomorrow morning's ceremony will be the first installation of a new pastor at Transfiguration church since the former pastor, the Rev. Theodore L. Fischer, was installed in May, 1942.

The Rev. Fischer served here until the past Aug. 31, when he left Pottstown to become pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Mayfair, Philadelphia.

Dr. Weber, who is director of human relations at the Decker-Jarvis plant, served as supply pastor at Transfiguration church during the four months preceding the Rev. Umberger's arrival here Jan. 1.

The Rev. Umberger came to Pottstown from Haddon Heights, N. J., where he was pastor of the Lutheran church of the Ascension.

WHILE IN New Jersey he was vice president of the Southern conference of the synod of that State. He also served as chaplain of the Camden Municipal hospital under Dr. Louis Carrel, polio specialist. The congregation of Transfiguration church will hold a reception for the newly installed pastor Tuesday night. It will take place at the annual congregational meeting in the parish house at 7:30 o'clock.

Church Class to Hear Japanese Student

New Hanover Lutheran Sunday school will hear of the progress made by the Christian church in Japan from a native of that country at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Kei Sasaki, Japanese exchange student, dressed in the costume of her country also will visit the different departments of the Church school to extend greetings from the Japanese Lutheran church.

Miss Sasaki is attending Susquehanna university where she is preparing to teach in a Lutheran high school in Japan. She will return at the end of this school year.

She will be entertained by the Kathleen ragan society, a young women's missionary organization, during her visit in this area.

Lefty Checkbook Latest in Fashion

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP) — Left-handers were always complaining to the Trade Bank and Trust company about checkbooks. Seems the stubs on the left of the checkbook got in the way when a left-hander used them.

"It was poignant, I tell you," confessed Arthur Larschan, secretary and comptroller. Today his bank revealed its answer to the complaints — a left-handed checkbook with stubs out of the way on the right.

All a left-hander needs now is money in the bank.

Bible Words to Live by JOHN 3:16—"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

I hesitate to suggest my favorite Bible verse. It is a bit as if some one asked me to name my favorite son or daughter. There are four of them and each has an equal place in my affections. Bible verses are a bit like that to me.

Perhaps John 3:16 stands at the top of the list. No other verse seems to embody so much of the gospel. This verse, sometimes called, "The Gospel in a Nutshell" certainly is at the heart of the gospel message. God's infinite love His supreme gift to man, His inclusive invitation to eternal life, and His promise of our redemption through Christ, are the basic foundations on which our salvation rests.

It is for these and other reasons that I cherish John 3:16, as containing a gold nugget of spiritual truth of par excellence value.

Three Pottstown Churches to Honor Young People With Special Services

Young people of three Pottstown churches will be honored at special "Youth Sunday" services in each church tomorrow.

At First Baptist church the 10:45 a. m. worship service will mark the opening of "Youth Week." The Rev. Laurence T. Beers, pastor, will have as his sermon theme, "The Fountain of Youth."

The program at the 7 p. m. unified evening service will be in charge of a group from Eastern Baptist College. There will be special music and a talk by evangelist-artist Mervin J. Hilton.

First Presbyterian church will also have a guest speaker for its "Young People's Day." He will be the Rev. William A. Guenther, who will speak at the 11 a. m. service.

TRINITY REFORMED church will begin its observance by turning over the worship portion of the Sunday school to the young people. Richard Mensch, president of the youth fellowship, will preside at the 9:30 a. m. service.

At morning worship the Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor, will be assisted by Daniel R. and Russell A. Bechtel, both students at Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster.

Russell will deliver a short address on "Youth at Work in the Evangelical and Reformed church" at the 10:45 a. m. service, while Daniel will read the Scripture lesson.

The Rev. Frantz will preach on the theme "Our Common Faith."

Two exchange students from Europe now studying at North Coventry High school will speak at a special program for parents and friends tomorrow night during the 6:30 o'clock youth fellowship meeting in Fellowship hall.

The two girls, Iringart Breckhahn, Oldenburg, Germany, and Margaret Suchomel, Vienna, Austria, will speak on the customs of their native countries and compare them with American ways.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Dutcher, adult advisers of the youth fellowship, planned the day's activities in co-operation with the Rev. Frantz.

Anti-Poll-Tax Plan Pushed by Senators

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) and nine other southern Democratic Senators today proposed a constitutional amendment to outlaw the poll tax as a requirement for voting for Federal officials.

In a prepared statement Holland suggested such an amendment might smooth the way for "moderate and clearly legal" solutions to other vexing civil rights issues.

He predicted prompt ratification by the States, adding that "we feel that such a conclusion of this long standing controversy is decidedly in the interest of sound Democratic Government and stronger unity among all the people of our nation."

"Perhaps the speedy settlement of this issue may lead the way to moderate and clearly legal settlements of other long standing questions on which we have been long divided and sometimes even bitterly divided."

India, with 43 million Moslems, is the third largest Moslem country in the world, Indonesia and Pakistan being first and second in that order.

Patricia Rentschler to Wed Donald Howe Today in Spring City Church

Patricia Rentschler and her fiancé, Donald Howe, gathered with their wedding party last night in Spring City Lutheran church for one last rehearsal.

This afternoon the couple will be married by the Rev. Ralph L. Alderfer in a 2 o'clock ceremony.

Father of the bride, Clarence M. Rentschler Sr., will escort her down the aisle to the altar which will be decked with white carnations and palms.

Mrs. William Rhoads, a friend of the family, has promised to play the organ during the double ring rites.

Mrs. Rentschler going over the guest list in her 202 Chestnut street home in Spring City expects between 75 and 100 guests who are invited to the reception, also.

She plans to wear dark blue taffeta, dark blue accessories and white carnations for her daughter's ceremony.

For the bride's 'borrowed' article, Mrs. Howard Heller promised to bring her sister something which she wore in her wedding the past June. Until the ceremony this afternoon, Miss Rentschler will not know what it is to be.

White and lace is the handkerchief which was her mother's; a blue garter and pearls, gift of the groom, will complete her traditional needs as a bride.

One pearl button fastens the bride's lace jacket at her throat. Cut short and with long sleeves, it covers a strapless bodice of net. The shirred bodice falls into a full ballerina-length skirt trimmed by four rows of ruffles.

An orchid will center her white carnation bouquet.

Janice Rentschler in orchid net and satin will act as maid of honor for her sister. A small satin bolero jacket will hide her bare shoulders. Appliques of orchids will echo the satin on her ballerina skirt.

Accordian pleated net is to trim her bodice neckline. Matching her gown, an orchid bow will tie a bouquet of white carnations.

The groom has asked Marvin Chandler to act as best man.

Mrs. Fred Howe, mother of the groom, came from Morrisville with her husband, mother and brother from New York City last night to be present for Donald Howe's wedding today.

They spent the night with him in his trailer which will be the couple's home after their marriage. It is parked at a Spring City RD address.

Pink accessories, pink carnations and a blue suit are Mrs. Howe's choice for today's festivities, wedding and following reception in the church's social rooms.

The bride will pin her orchid to a traveling suit of light blue faille for the couple's trip in Massachusetts where they plan to visit the groom's brother.

Prior to her marriage the bride was employed by Spring City Knitting company. She was graduated from Spring City High school the past June.

After attending Spring City schools where he met Miss Rentschler, the groom was employed by Ciba Laboratory, Kimberton.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

Rev. R. O. Parry Performs Double Ring Ceremony Uniting Janet Templin, Howard Reichelderfer Jr.

MR. AND MRS. HOWARD REICHELDERFER

At a simple double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. R. O. Parry, Janet Templin became the bride of Howard Reichelderfer Jr. in the living room of her home, 61 West Fifth street.

Miss Templin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Templin; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reichelderfer Sr., 319 Manatwny street.

The Rev. Parry is pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Birdsboro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white net gown trimmed with lace. Her strapless bodice was covered by an attached matching stole.

Lace which trimmed the bodice and waistline of her gown matched the trim on her floorlength veil.

Mr. and Mrs. Reichelderfer spent two days in Harrisburg. The bride traveled in a black and white dress with black accessories. They are now at home to their friends at 305 Manatwny street.

Mr. Reichelderfer is a graduate of Pottstown Senior High school, class of 1951. He is employed at the Doehler-Jarvis corporation.

Living a block apart for four years, Mr. and Mrs. Reichelderfer didn't start dating until seven months ago, although as the bride put it, "We were always good friends."

Century Club Program to Feature Reading Director as Speaker

Century club communications committee has arranged the program for Wednesday's meeting at 7:15 o'clock in Library hall.

Man Falls Into Net After Plunging From Hotel's Sixth Floor

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23 (AP)—A man climbed through a sixth-floor hotel window today, clung briefly to the sill by his fingertips and then plunged to a net held by firemen below. Cameramen snapped pictures and a crowd of about 200 watched in horror as the man hurtled through the air.

Elmer E. Vail, 50-year-old lawyer of Pontiac, Ill., struck the edge of the net, wrenching it from the grasp of firemen, and suffered a spinal fracture and lesser injuries. His condition was described as serious but not critical.

The firemen got the rescue net into position only seconds before Vail climbed onto the window and dropped. A few minutes earlier, when an aerial ladder was being moved into place for removal of Vail, he appeared at the window and threw out two lamps and a dresser-drawer.

Police Sgt. Arthur Zick, summoned to the Warwick hotel in downtown St. Louis, after Vail shouted for police, said the attorney refused to unlock his door and called out "they're after me now!"

"I'M A POLICE officer in uniform and I'm here to help you," Zick replied. Vail then told the officer to go to the lobby and that he would telephone him there. The sergeant called firemen when Vail failed to phone the lobby.

Upon his arrival at city hospital, Vail continued to shout: "they're after me!" Police attempted to question him but said he was unable to talk coherently. Dr. Robert Shanewise said Vail did not appear to have been drinking.

FBI Nabs Ex-Cons For Trenton Holdup

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23 (AP)—Two youthful ex-convicts were nabbed by the FBI today as members of the daring mid-day holdup of an industrial District bank in Kansas City, Kansas, Wednesday.

Four bandits forcing 15 employees and customers of the bank into a vault at pistol point, calmly looted the bank of $48,000 and escaped in an automobile.

FBI Special Agent J. A. Robey announced today that two young couples had been charged with the robbery and named in fugitive warrants. He said they should be considered dangerous.

The four were named as James Calloway Fahnestock, 21, and his wife, Billie, 22; Louis Albert Sturgis, 24, and Virginia May Iser, 20, the Fahnestocks and Miss Iser live in Kansas City, Sturgis in adjacent Clay county.

Whaling ships from Europe are believed to have reached Newfoundland waters in the 14th Century.

The accomplice was identified by the FBI as Leonard Jashenski, about 29 years old, from either Chicago or Florida. Jashenski also was listed as an ex-convict.

Motorist Is Fined $100 On Drunk Driving Charge

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, Jan. 23 (AP)—Harry Tarynski, 361 South street, Pottstown, who pleaded guilty to a drunken driving charge before Judge William F. Dannehower today, was fined $100.

Motor Patrolman Earl Rhoads testified that he arrested the defendant Jan. 10 after he drove his truck into the side of a pleasure car on the parking lot of a King street funeral home.

The damaged machine belonged to John L. Bauer, 54 West Fifth street, Pottstown.

get yourself in this mess, George?"

THE MAN answered, "I don't know why. I had no business to go in with her in the first place. I was going to leave a week ago."

Kelley asked Betz what he paid the woman in rent for living in the apartment. He said, "I didn't pay anything. We made an agreement when I moved in that I should buy groceries."

In her testimony Mrs. Mondik would not tell all of details leading up to the beating she received on Friday.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Betz was taken back to his cell in the borough lockup with a shrug of the shoulders. He asserted, "I told the truth. I'll have to go to jail for it. I can't get $500 for bail."

Mrs. Mondik, wearing a green coat, left with a cane.

2 Women Aid Mates In Bank Holdup

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 23 (AP)—The FBI declared today that two women, wearing men's clothing, participated in the daring mid-day holdup of an industrial District bank in Kansas City, Kansas, Wednesday.

Bank Robbers Miss $100,000 in Holdup

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 23 (AP)—A cursing, jittery band of gunmen robbed a branch bank of $32,000 today but missed by 15 minutes an additional $100,000.

The larger sum was in the main vault with a time lock. The lock was set to open just 15 minutes after the unmasked bandits fled in a late-model black sedan.

Witnesses first said four men took part in the raid, but the FBI said it could account for only three.

FBI agents said the robbery of the First National bank's West End branch apparently was the work of experts. The bandits swooped down on the branch bank in mid-morning, herded 11 employees and several customers into a rear room, and snatched all the paper money in sight.

Two men customers and a bank official were struck when they failed to obey orders as quickly as the robbers wanted.

One stuck a pistol in the side of a woman employee and ordered her to "get in back."

The robbery took less than five minutes. The branch is on a heavily traveled street in a neighborhood shopping center.

District Attorney Asked For State Police Aid

GREENSBURG, Jan. 23 (AP)—District Attorney L. Alexander Sculco said today he asked State police aid in investigating operation crusade, an informal Westmoreland county crime probe group.

Sculco said: "Several persons actively engaged with Operation Crusade have made slanderous and libelous remarks, not only against public office holders and officials, but against respectable citizens. We want to ascertain who is responsible."

A delegation of clergymen from the County yesterday asked Gov. John S. Fine to halt State police investigation of Operation Crusade. Fine told the group he would get a report from Col. C. M. Wilhelm, State Police commissioner, on the group's complaint.

Operation Crusade, an organization of ministers and laymen, seeks to expose crime in Westmoreland county. The group's six directors have charged that State police questioned members of the organization on Communist activities without grounds.

Retired Manufacturer, James H. Baldwin, Dies

BROOKFIELD, Conn., Jan. 23 (AP)—James Hewitt Baldwin, 76, retired textile manufacturer and resident here 10 years, died today at Danbury hospital.

Baldwin, a native of Pittsburgh, and privately educated there, was president of the Crax Carpet company of New York city at the time of his retirement a number of years ago.

With the rank of captain, he was director of American Red Cross activities at Southampton, Eng., during World War I.

Baldwin was a member of the Union League and town hall clubs of New York city; the First Presbyterian church there, and a director of the League for political education in New York.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Anna Belle Frazer Baldwin of Brookfield; two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence W. Hoyt, Brookfield and Mrs. William Goodwin of New York city; two grandchildren and a sister, Henrietta Baldwin of Millington. Funeral services are private.

Driver's Quick Thinking Prevents Electrocution

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23 (AP)—A bus driver's quick thinking probably saved his 29 passengers from electrocution today when a 4000-volt electric cable broke and fell across the vehicle.

William Lindhorst, driver for the V-K lines, said, "we were blinded by blue sparks shooting around us and I looked out and saw what had happened. I yelled to them all to stay inside or they'd be electrocuted."

Then Lindhorst slammed the doors and drove off.

A Union Electric company spokesman said the vehicle's rubber tires served as insulation, but if anyone had stepped down to the wet pavement he might have grounded the entire bus and electrocuted its passengers. The line was switched off within seconds.

WALKOUT ENDS
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23 (AP)—American Hardware Supply company employees ended a six-week walkout today by accepting a new contract and 12½ cent hourly pay package and other benefits.

ST. PAUL'S DAY —

legend of St. Paul's day.
He predicts cloudy and colder weather for tomorrow after cloudy, windy and mild day today. Intermittent rains will spray the area today and thermometers will record a high of from 50 to 55.

Yesterday the fog was heavy in the lowlands of the country and on the borough fringes early in the morning.

BY 9 O'CLOCK it had rolled into the center of town and hung like a white web over High street. Traffic was slowed by the thick fog, that great wrecker of time-tables.

The mercury showed a high of 49 at midnight last night and a low of 32 at 4 a. m. yesterday.

High reading during the past week was posted this past Monday when the temperature climbed to 52. The low of 32 for yesterday stood for the week.

The week was generally mild for January. Much of the frost in the ground disappeared and mud made its hated appearance.

Most residents enjoyed weather, but the skater was trumpeting the blues, a song he has played for a number of Winters now.

The heavy precipitation and high temperatures keep the common cold and the flu bugs working overtime. Doctors remain busy.

Monday was the brightest day of the week. Wednesday was the wettest when nearly one-half inch of rain filtered out of gray skies.

Trojans Trample Bridgeport

DAVE RICKETTS SCORES 25
FOR 12TH WIN, 85-46

By ED TAGGERT

Everything went off as planned last night as Pottstown High had no trouble beating Bridgeport, 85-46, at the Junior High gym.

Dave Ricketts scored 25 points, the Trojans moved into a tie for second place in the Ches-Mont league standings, and the team generally enjoyed itself with everybody doing some scoring. It was the Trojans' 12th triumph in 14 games.

One surprise, however, was the presentation Coach Ed Good made to his team captain and all-time high scorer, Dave Ricketts. In a brief ceremony preceding the game, Good offered a short address extolling the outstanding record Ricketts has compiled.

Dave worked up a better sweat listening to his coach sing his praises than he did equaling his 25 point average. Dave's mother was presented with a fine piece of luggage in behalf of her son by Coach Good. He suggested that she start packing it—"and send your boy west about 300 miles" to Pittsburgh to join brother Dick at Duquesne.

With the pre-game festivities safely behind him, Ricketts looked more sure of himself once the contest began and brought a fast cheer from his fans with a field goal the first time he shot. He was fouled on the play, and after making the free throw his team was ahead, 3-2, and the Porters trailed from then on.

The Dragons, who are winless in Ches-Mont league play, tried hard but the Trojans were as loose last night, as they were tight in the early stages of the Coatesville game.

Mike Kriczky wielded a mean hook shot that seldom missed the mark. He hit for three of this variety in the first quarter and added a few more during the game. With a 7-12 and 4-6 shooting percentage, he piled up 18 points with a limited amount of gunnery.

MIKE AND DAVE carried the first period scoring as the Trojans went out in front, 21-9. Bridgeport was more effective in the second period, especially in the later

West Pottsgrove Weathers Royersford Rally to Win, 49-48; Strzelecki, 24, Geisler, 15, Lead Falcon Scorers

By GARY TROLLINGER

West Pottsgrove was pushed even beyond the final buzzer for victory last night, disentangling itself from the ring ropes barely in time to pick up a 49-48 win over Royersford in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill league.

So tightly drawn was the noose strung together in a hurry over the final two stanzas by Connie Eliff and his up-until-now ineffectual horde of Eagles drawn around the host Falcons' throat that an overtime period was nestling on Lou Alexander's fingertips at the final buzzer.

Alexander, the mitey 'Ford captain, who last time out broke a league foul conversion record, was awarded two shots barely prior to the final gun with his team just a hairsbreadth away.

With everybody standing waiting for the post mortem choice between an overtime chapter and going home, Louie's first flip from the charity line teetered on the rim and then fell out. That was it. The officials brought him back from the stag line going into the locker room and he dunked the anti-climatic second one.

West Pottsgrove snatched third spot in the standings with its fourth league win against a pair of setbacks. Royersford now is 3-3.

IT WAS A fiery finish to a tilt that looked to be stashed securely in the Falcons' back pocket by halftime. With Paul Strzelecki and Dick Geisler wiling the nets with 26 points between them, West Pottsgrove

Bridgeport Girls Win, 36-31, Over Pottstown High's Trojanettes

Scoring more points in the third period than they had in the two preceding ones put together, Bridgeport's girls basketballers stopped Pottstown High's unbeaten streak, yesterday, 36-31, on the 'Port floor.

The Dragonettes thumped through 15 points in the third stanza after being held to a 13-13 intermission stalemate by Peg Mallady's Trojan girls. Leading the 'Porter burst was Gertrude Sokol, who finished the game with 13 points.

She had to relinquish game counting laurels to Pottstown's Ninth-grade Virginia Keller, who dunked 14. She and Carol Rutter were instrumental in leading PHS back into contention in the final period, scoring eight and six markers, respectively, to fuel up a 14 point rally.

Carol was second high to Miss Keller with a dozen points for the day.

It was the first loss for the Trojanettes after two consecutive wins. Their next engagement is next Friday, hosting Coatesville.

IN THE JAYVEE scrap, things were just reversed as Pottstown's yearlings rallied in the third quarter for 10 markers to draw from

PHS Jayvees Top Bridgeport, 64-37

Victory No. 10 went onto the Pottstown High junior varsity ledger last night as Coach Bill McCabe's team rode to an easy 64-37 win over Bridgeport J.V.s.

The young Trojans have won their last five games, all in the Ches-Mont league, and need only to beat West Chester on Tuesday to clinch the first half flag.

Pottstown romped to a 35-11 lead as the starting five scored almost as they pleased. Merrill Shirey (13) and Al Bodolus (10) headed the list of 12 Trojan scorers.

The game developed into a "football" contest near the end, but each and every Trojan who played scored at least a point.

Next Tuesday the Trojans complete their first round schedule at West Chester. The Warriors won last night, 63-54, over Berwyn. Coatesville moved closer to the first round title by halting Phoenixville, 66-50. The Raiders play at home Tuesday night against Downingtown.

Hill (5-0) Meets Unbeaten Blair

The Hill finds out of what strength twine its unbeaten streak is made this afternoon when it hosts also unbeaten Blair on the Gillison hardwood at 3 p. m.

Both clubs are undaunted in five straight tussles, winning most of the tussles by wide margins. Tradition and the home atmosphere rate the Blue the favorite today, though.

It has been the case in the past two years that whenever unbeaten Blair met the equally fortunate Hill, it was the Blair streak that took a dive. At any rate, it should be interesting this afternoon as the two clubs fight it out for top prep school rating.

Coach Perry Bowden announced last night that co-captain Bill Dailey, who missed the trip to Stevens Trade Wednesday, will be back in harness today and start along with Jim Radcliffe, Dave Reidenauer, Andy Wilson and Tom Glenn.

The Blue swimmers, unbeaten in their one dual meet, visit Mercersburg this afternoon, while the once-dunked Hill wrestlers and indoor tracksters take off to Blairstown, N. J., to vie with the hosts.

Upper Perk Loses to Alumni

Ken Miller and Dick Kressley cracked the whip to the tune of 17 last stanza points 'between them last night in leading the East Greenville-Pennsburg Alumni to a 64-54 win over Upper Perkmen High on the Yellow Jackets' floor.

For the Scholastics, Lee Gaugler was the lone double-figure scorer, netting 13, as Terry Fetterman sunk to nipe this time out.

The loss was the third against eight wins for Upper Perk and interrupted its five game win streak. The Jacket girls won the preliminary, defeating the Alumni a 42-15.

That was Gaugler's fifth foul and his loss probably would have hurt the hosts deeply in the overtime as he was greatly responsible for the delaying backcourt work that ate up sufficient time earlier.

Another Falcon who failed to dent the point column but was of inestimable aid was long Lloyd Carpenter. He was banished on personals when Strunk shot his two, after spending nearly the entirety of the final stanza blocking and deflecting close follow up shots by Quinn, Troutwine and Dinnoconti.

NORCO BREAKS LOSING SKEIN, BEATS SPRING CITY, 44-33

North Coventry broke a three game losing streak last night by dousing Spring City, 44-33, on the Bucs' court in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill circuit.

Ernie Kully led the Cats, who built up an early lead and then matched the Pirates in point output in the final half to chalk up the win. Ernie potted five fielders and eight fouls for 18 points.

Ken Addis' nine was tops for the losers, who dropped their fourth nod in six league decisions. Norco tied Royersford, beaten at West Pottsgrove, for fourth by winning. Both clubs now have 3-3 logs.

Paced by Bob Stipa's 17, the Pirate underlings had little trouble with the Norco seconds, strapping the latter, 40-15, in the evening's curtain raiser.

Golden Cubs Win 2d Game, 40-38; UM Player Missed Last-Second Fouls

The clock showed less than a second to play when Upper Merion Junior High's Bob Smisko stepped to the foul line to shoot a pair of fouls with his team trailing, 38-40.

He missed both attempts and Pottstown Junior High gained its second win of the year yesterday on its home floor amid a stand-shaking demonstration by its young fans. The Cubs have lost three.

The score did not change after Bob Freeze sank his fourth straight foul in the last 17 seconds to give the Golden Cubs the 40-38 lead. And it was Freeze who made the Junior High's last six points as Upper Merion caught fire in the final quarter.

After Freeze made his final foul, the visitors hurried the ball up the floor and took several shots at the basket without waiting any time. Several scrambles developed and finally as the clock was about to run out, Ken Wensel was charged with bumping Smisko.

The situation was tense as Smisko tried his first shot. He had scored seven points in the big Upper Merion fourth, but he bounced his first foul attempt off the front of the rim. He played the second shot smart by banging it against the backboard in the hope of recovering the rebound and pushing up a field goal.

Don Keifrider spoiled the plan, jumping in front of Smisko and made both tries but Smisko sent home another long hook and the Cubs were still only one ahead. Freeze added the only other point as Smisko was not up to his game-ting chance.

The five-point spread was narrowed to one on fouls by Hanley and Smisko and Kontra's layup after he swiped a pass at mid-court.

Freeze was again fouled and made both tries but Smisko sent home another long hook and the Cubs were still only one ahead. Freeze added the only other point as Smisko was not up to his game-ting chance.

grabbed the ball at the final whistle.

Although Paul Zirkel managed to stay out of the late news, he certainly gained headlines with his consistent play throughout the game.

HIS MATES found him with passes five times under the basket and he completed the plays for field goals. On two other occasions he scored on jump shots to finish with 18 points.

Coach Gene Kauler used his shock troops most of the way in the rough and tumble affair. Ken Wensel and Joe Lipko, spot performers in the past, saw lots of action and proved their worth. Wensel with seven points and Lipko with his rebounding.

Both teams employed a full-court press throughout the game. This kept the referees' whistles playing a merry tune. The Cubs made 16 out of 34 at the free throw line, while the losers hit on only 14 of 31. The two extra Cub conversions proved the difference in the scoring.

Bill Ellis was on constant watch for Zirkel underneath, and three times—twice in the third frame—found the Cub pivotman with scoring passes. During the third period the Cubs spread their advance.

"We Serve Your Neighbor"

A Tribute to the Old-Timers

Sprinkled down the pages of history are the colorful feats performed by the old-timers... the men and women who made popular the sports of today.

These pioneers will be remembered forever. Their stars may be momentarily dimmed by the ecstatic cheers for the present-day athlete, but not for long. Their names and deeds live on the marble tablets of memory.

Stowe has had its share of immortals in the sports world. Today we honor the memories of these immortals and pay tribute at the same time to the heroes of today's sports world.

"It matters not if you won or lost,
"But how you played the game."
